A FEW BRIGHT SPOTS IN THE DARKNESS

For years of service and devotion to the students of MHS we dedicate our yearbook to you . . .

MISS O'HALLORAN

DEDICATION

Without this man the class of 1970 would have been average, but his determination and fortitude spurred us on to being the best class ever to graduate from M.H.S. to show our gratitude we dedicate our yearbook to the best class advisor ever . . .

1970: A Record Breaking Season

During the 1970 season many records were broken. Denny Zilembo scored 41 points in a single game against Hudson High School to break the previously held record of 39 points. He also compiled a total of 404 points for the season breaking the record of 379 established in 1955. For this feat, he became the leading scorer for the Marlboro-Hudson-Northboro Area. But, Denny couldn't have done it without all the other members of the team. Scott Pryor, Dave Cotting, Peter Lepore, Bob McCarthy, Steve Reynolds, and all the other members were always around making key plays for the Panthers. The student body of M.H.S. will never forget the excitement of the tournament and the bubbling enthusiasm that moved about the halls of Marlboro High during that week. We congratulate Coach George Vasil and his fine team for a job well done and say "thanks for a great season!"

DUSK

by Linda P. Chatalian '70

Four years have passed
Now gone forever
Graduation at last
To be forgotten never

1966 — scared freshmen were we
Three years ahead
Would we make it to the end?
High school, then, an eternity.

It couldn't happen
Not to us
For we were still
Three years from dusk.

Sophomore year — still young in our ways
Two years ahead — would we make it to the end?
High school, then, more days
Than we could comprehend.

It couldn't happen
Not to us
For we were still
Two years from dusk.

Junior year — somewhat matured
One year ahead — would we make it to the end?
With term papers, proms immured
Still one more year to be endured.

It couldn't happen
Not to us
Yes, we were only
One year from dusk.

1970 — shrewd seniors were we
Graduation ahead
Seeking success to the end
But graduation would never be.

It couldn't happen
Not to us
For we were still
Months from dusk.

June 3rd — graduates — Class of '70
The future ahead — we made it to the end.
To go forth with trust, friendship, unity
High school — just a memory
Our lives, now, an eternity.

It did happen
To us
With graduation
We have reached dusk.

Four years have passed
Now gone forever
Graduation at last
To be forgotten never.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year 1980 the Class of 1970 of Marlboro High School holds its 10th reunion at the House of Pizza. We see Michael Duca, now President of the United States, entering with his first lady, Jackie Blombach, a world-famed ballerina. We see Helen Blazejewski who just flew in from St. Petersburg followed by Mary Fortier carrying a "King-sized" toothbrush. James Brennan has arrived. In keeping with the Brennan tradition, he is now Principal of Marlboro High School. In walks Jacqueline Shea singing "You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby." Frank Beckstein, Attorney General to President Duca, has arrived escorting Carol Phillip, owner of Flip's Boutique of New York. At a corner table we can see Joe Pacific, Tom Pomphrey, Norm Bouthilette, Mike D'Antonio, Ralph Evangelous, Craig Williams, and Jim Nims, all members of the Boston Bruins, drinking champagne from the Stanley Cup. Their manager Phil Carroll is being lifted above the crowd. At their feet are Jane Hutch and Chris Mountzouris who are begging for autographs.

Tom Niemczura, clad in a white lab coat, has dropped in here after successfully completing an operation transferring a man's brain into a mouse. Kathy Howe is applauded as she enters because she is the first girl to win the BAA Marathon. Who is that we see pulling up out front in his new Pontiac? Here's Ricky, the star of the world renowned Rick Ponti Show. He brings his staff which includes: Dick Lavigne, Fashion Coordinator; Richard Battaglia, Music Director; Ed Whalen and Vic Melechow, Head Photographers; Julie Bourque, Stage Director; Robin Podlesney, Hairstylist; Donna Maffioli, Choreographer. His orchestra includes: Debby Valianti, Pianist; Richard Caruso, Tuba; Liz Ayotte, Clarinet; Diane Penta, Trumpet; Richard Gasparoni, Trombone; James Hoag, Trumpet. Entertainer at the reunion is "The Great Pando with his Bag of Tricks." He is holding everyone spell-bound. James Tripp is also in show business. He has recently starred in the Broadway Production "Don't Drink the Water."

In flies Donnie Wilson, now navigator of Apollo 547, with his co-pilot Nancy Zanca. Stewardesses for his flight include: Denise Francolini, Donna Wilk, Chris Padhaisky, Debby Larosse. In charge of flight control is John Mockus. In walks PFC Robert Richards showing off his new crewcut.

Here comes an entourage of some of our professional athletes. Ron Lafreniere is wearing the gold medal he recently won at the Olympics. Dave Gaynor, the star southpaw of the pennant winning Boston Red Sox, is accompanied by his head coach Jean Maslowski. Steve Reynolds is a hard hitting right fielder for the Bosox. Smiling Bob McCarthy, who has recently been voted the best short stop in the American League, has entered accompanied by Michelle Wilk, who is cracking the whip behind him. Denny Zilembo is still breaking records while playing for the Boston Celtics. The Celtics are also fortunate to have the services of Dave Cotting as center and Harry Bouchie as manager. Scott Pryor and Richie Brennan enter wearing knickers after golfing at the Masters. Jay and Bill McQuillan have just returned from a big game hunt in Africa.

Queen of the "Apple" Blossom Festival, Kathy Abatsis is here with her "King." We "sea" Diane Paul has not gotten off Scott free. Billy Rigney comes in with Diane Troumpalos singing "Diana Rigney." Dave Riani is present. He has become head man at the Oscar Meyer Meat Company. Rachel Daigle is still his top choice. Dr. Richard Lambert of Massachusetts General Hospital is accompanied by the "Florence Fly-By-Nights." They include: Martha Senecal, Diane Winters, Janice Labossiere, Sue Hodgdon, Sandi Hodgdon, Wanda Hawley, Ann Leaver, Coral Nicholas, Sue Bertrand, Mary Kelleher, Carol Grice, Lorna Doane, Margaret Harvey, and Jan Shea. They were a little late because an emergency had arisen at Vocational Motors. Many auto mechanics were injured when there was a mechanical malfunction in the assembly line of their new supersonic "funny car" invented by Kevin Bigelow. Those injured were: Charles Callahan, Steve Cyr, Stephen McNally, Ed Paquette, John Santella, Scott Sowden, and Peter Taylor.

Seated at the counter is Mary Grogan, Dean of "Whats-a-Matter U." Her faculty includes: Alice Jackson, Debby Beland, Debby Mendes, Nancy Savoy, Peter Lepore, Barbara McCarthy, Dave Quinn, Barbara Risotti, Patty Mahoney, Susan Gebhart, Mary Henderson, Chris Dyer, Debby Falamino, Debby Savage, Sharon Elder, Faith Peltekis, and Becky Buxton. Cheryle Peterson is refusing to eat her grinder because she is on a diet. We see Joan Cianella gabbing away in a corner to Finton Moore and Cooky Gilchrest. John Minard is being led in on a leash by Dr. Janet Rugg, a famous veterinarian. Sharon Crane, the acrobatic biologist, comes cartwheeling in with Debby Moscillo. Admiral Tim Burke is immediately confronted by Toby Long, Alexis Korandanis, and Gerri Capobianco who have just received their draft notices.

Stretching their coffee break are some of our secretaries: Barbara Vaillancourt, Susan Gelina, Ann Valeri, Rochelle Whalen, Jane Brooks, Susan Bastien, Cheryl Blanquette, Donna Campbell, Sue Danzilio, Marsha Lepore, Barbara Bersey, Kathy Manning, Joanne Walsh, Denise Young, Karen St. Jean, and Jeanne Sanderson. Sitting in a corner at a larger table are "Mr. and Mrs." Brian Margadonna, the former Cheryl Flagg. Since they were unable to get a babysitter, they had to take their fifteen kids along with them. Sauntering in the House of Pizza in his coonskin cap is Robert "Smokey the Bear" Beauvais. He is accompanied by a forester friend, David Garfield and Wild Life Manager, Wayne Miller.

In walks Barbara Francis who is a receptionist at the United Nations. She has finally gotten the "Mouse" caged. Betsy Laodicina, owner of the fashionable Chez "Charlie," has recently flown in from Paris. David Shavone, the author of the world acclaimed novel How to Succeed in High School the Easy Way, has his notes kept in order by his private secretary Jeanne Navin. Gale Ercolani has recently been voted "Homemaker of the Year." She is still head of the "Lynch" mob. We see some of our world famous covergirls at a table chatting over cokes. They include: Kathy Agoritsas, Chris Ferrara, Beverly Bruyere, Peggy Branconnier, Barbara Tremblay, and Maureen Montecalvo.

Supreme Court Judge Mary Sullivan is seen talking with Philip Boudreau, a famous lawyer, and his most frequent client, Donna Schofield. We see many machinists are busy at work trying to stop the coke machine from gushing forth its contents. They are: Dean Estabrook, Michael Di-Buono, Ronald Houde, Ronald Martel, and Richard Seymour. Suddenly the lights go out but electrical engineer Steve Carroll comes to the rescue. Steve Lepore is happily walking in displaying the medal he won at a United States Billiard Tournament held recently at Bibby's Billiard Establishment. Jim Jacobs, who has just taken the position of line coach from the retiring Coach Belliveau at Marlboro High School, is nervously tapping on a table for pizza. Kenny Moore, a renowned baseball announcer who has just written a book entitled A Million and One Sports Facts, is quizzing the guys at his table. Filling his father's shoes, Donald Mossman is now an auto mechanics instructor at Marlboro Vocational High School.

All class members are getting discount rates tonight because Ann Losapio is the current owner of the "House." Bobby Paulhus and Steve Ohman enter together since they are co-owners of the P&O Package Store. We are all under group therapy that is being performed by Linda McKenzie, "head" psychologist at Westboro State Hospital. Patrick Daugherty is standing on a table top lending us a rendition of "Puff the Magic Dragon." Officer "Agarn" Ahearn steps outside the House of Pizza to tell everyone to keep moving. Tom Lynch is now working for the Forestry Department under Commissioner Mike Bracken. Francis Renzi and Barbara Fernberg are now co-owners of Frenzie and Fernley's Bargain Basement. Bernard Novitch has parked his car out front only to be hit by a police cruiser. His car is being repaired by Seyman Amell, David Demais, Robert Greska, Richard Place, Alfred Raiano, Keith Samways, and Paul Lurette.

In the middle of the floor we see Sandi Armienti, Frances Coache, John Collins, Glen Merlini, Marcia Keefe, David Mutti, and David Jusseaume working on a sculpture from sugar cubes and discussing their booming art careers. Head journalist of the New York Times, Linda Chatalian, comes charging through the crowd to get a few more details for a news scoop. Beheet Mustafa is doing well in his new post of Ambassador to the United States from Cyprus. Diane Thomas strolls into the House of Pizza wearing her saddle shoes. Danny Papagno is still close at hand. In comes Nancy "Hank" McGrath wearing her "Kenny" tennis shoes. Here comes Mary Ellen Xenos still telling her jokes for the "Jon." Dr. John "Foster" Toohey enters with his own psychiatrist's couch. Linda Charbonneau enters carrying a bouquet of "Venus Fly-Traps" from her greenhouse. Arthur Andrade, "Best Dressed," arrives dressed in a zoot suit. Mary Bill arrives a little late.

Nancy McDonald and Kathy Butka have the distinction of having been the first ones to arrive. Marilyn Hibbert is still hearing buffaloes coming along. Kathleen Scott, a famous opera singer, is serenading all the class members. We see Christine Lambert has come up from the coal mine. Kevin Landers comes running in to assist Dr. John Toohey. Sue Roy enters shortly; in height she resembles "Tom" Thumb. We hear a million girls screaming outside as in walks "Mr. America," Mark Kline. Nancy Leger arrives still wearing the same old "Bowen" her hair. Poor Janice Jusseaume has just arrived because she had to walk "Miles." Greek cooks for the affair are Jimmy Polechronis and Joanne Poirier. Unfortunately Joanne has eaten all the Greek cookies. Roxanne Ripley is in a corner reading her favorite comic "Dick Tracy." William Forest comes rolling in with his finger stuck in a bowling ball. Alan Bouvier is replacing the window in the front of the House of Pizza. Robert Mulvey accidentally pushed Mark Pakus out the window and caused the ruckus. Mary DiMuzio is busy giving Dave Susinski a hair cut. James DiRico is being called to the kitchen to repair the plumbing. Michael Ambrose is on hand to save anyone if there is a flood. Pamela Bachelder enters wearing her "Perfect Attendance Award." Paul Coache is parked in front of the House of Pizza in his antique car. Kenny "Pie" Bauks is now owner of Bauks' Bakery. Marsha Martino strolls in doing her famous impersonation of "Ruth Buzzy."

Steve Cook, Wayne Downey, Joanne McGovern, Robert Masula, Linda Gelina are all employees of the computer company owned by Ralph Belmore. Doing the electronical work for the company are Ronald Cormier, Donald Fournier, Michael Grasso, Michael Letendre, and Robert Stupik. Victor Gazzaniga is presently employed as the editor-in-chief of Mad Magazine. Vincent Karnila is the very successful owner of the Karnila Tool and Die Company. Some of his employees are Robert Baldelli and Richard Bent. Robert Palmer drives up to the House of Pizza in his bulldozer. Doing their nightly exercises are our gym teachers Joanne Raiano and Mary Reilly. Driving up out front in a patrol car is Officer Debby Headberg of the Marlboro Police Department. Richard Hartley, a famous racing driver, has just driven up in his STP Turbine car. Kathleen Lizotte is owner of the world famous "Pet Palace." Laurie Marshall is still playing basketball in the wrong court. Gale Houde walks in wearing her new dress?

We see John Courville arriving after winning his very first case at court. Arthur Doucette is going around to all the tables to see if anyone's watch needs repairing. A crowd out front is pushed aside as Kevin Crocker arrives thunderously on his motorcycle. Everyone in one corner is laughing at lab technician Kathye Blanchette because she is drinking her coke from a test tube. Clifford Labossiere is telling all his friends of his new job as chef at Anthony's Pier Four. Two of our dental assistants, Brenda Johnson and Janet Kyle, are passing out Dentyne chewing gum to all their classmates. Nancy Leclair is busy sketching an outfit for one of her customers, Paula Lepore. Eleanor DeVries, Debby St. Michel, and Tom Donovan have been working regularly as draftsmen. A group of working girls hurry in. They are: Nanct Madden, Nancy Maroney, Diane Marshall, Donna Marshall, Chris Coppola, Janet Lawrence, Debby Lyons, Ellen Gallagher, and Margaret O'Leary. Barbara Whittemore walks in sporting a new coiffure that she created. We see Bill Crosby is head bus boy at the Marlboro Country Club. Kelvin Forrest today holds the position of janitor at Marlboro High School. Harold Layton is home on leave from the service to attend the reunion. In the housewives corner we see Donna St. George, Mary Trembley, and Kathy Trudeau. Keith Kline has recently returned from his round-the-world motorcycle trip to attend the event.

Thus, as the hours fly by, we come to the end of the 10th class reunion. Jimmy Bubb and Steve Cogswell are seen trying to sweep up some of the debris. Bernie McCarthy is helping out by wiping some dishes with a "Terry" cloth towel. Cheryl Bent, Linda Blood, Suzanne Boisse, Mary Cocker, Cindy Roach, Mariane Gottwald, Belinda

Grant, Victoria Haynes, and Gail Lynde have all volunteered for kitchen detail. The tables and chairs are being aligned by Leigh Bodington, Severe Houde, Thomas Houde, Francis Collins, George Cupak, Robert Dwyer, James Elder, Richard Giancola, Steve Greenlaw, Peter

Roach, Richard Nicole, and Robert Perry.

Tomorrow will dawn a new day and all the class members will be going their separate ways. We will all meet again in years to come at our next reunion at the House of Pizza.
